GENERAL GUIDELINES

- Entry is available to all local area artists. Entrants may submit up to 1 large artwork (up to 36"x48") or 2 small (8"x10" or under) for an exhibit. Larger pieces may or may not be displayed, depending on available space. A non-refundable application fee is due upon submission; that fee is currently $10 for members of the Price Center and $15 for non-members. The application and release form must be submitted and completed in full in order to have works displayed. Subject matter should be appropriate for all visitors to the Price Center, which is a multi-generational, family oriented venue located at 222 W. San Antonio St. in San Marcos.
**See specific Call for Entry Exhibition guidelines for any restrictions, if applicable.*
- Only ORIGINAL works of art, including fine art prints, sculptural pieces, textile creations, decorated porcelain and other pottery works, photographs, and digital art signed by the artist will be accepted in shows. Giclee and other prints must be labeled as such. Artists are encouraged to enter recent work, and all entries must have been done entirely by the artist. Artwork previously exhibited at the Price Center Gallery is not eligible.
- Artwork displayed is up to the discretion of the Arts Committee and the Price Center.
- All artwork must be dry. Two-dimensional art should be framed, or unframed with finished edges and no visible staples. Artwork must be ready for hanging with tightly stretched wire securely attached on both sides, down 1/4 of the artwork height measured from the top of the piece. (For example, a 20-inch tall painting should be wired 5 inches from the top.) Saw-tooth hangers may only be used on small, lightweight pieces. Sculptural and other 3-dimensional works will be considered based on size and display availability.
- Sales: We encourage you to have your artwork for sale, but it is not required. Prices may not be changed after entry. Artwork sold will remain in the gallery for the duration of the show. The Price Center charges a 20% commission on all sales.
